

KEY VOCABULARY

Industrial Revolution

the 'Industrial Revolution' began in the 18th century and describes the move from hand manufacturing and human or animal power, to machinery locomotive

the engine of a train that pulls the other coaches

Chartism

a movement in the 1800s where working people fought for the right to vote and fairer treatment factory

a building, or groups of buildings, where goods are made using machines export

to send goods from one country to another to sell or trade mass production

when lots of products/goods are made at the same time

